

Mission Statement

The Mission of the InknChalk Art School is to encourage students to express their creativity through the visual arts. Through the arts, we provide the foundations for a better society. Artistic expressions will enable the individual to contribute to society by learning, understanding, and creating artistic works that will provide enriching experiences for all in society. To achieve this mission, the InknChalk Art School will provide a safe and engaging environment for all students to learn and grow.

Terms and Conditions

- Please pick up the student on time.
- Trial lesson cost of $30/$35 includes material.
- No family discounts.
- Payment is for term. No refunds will be given after the first two week of the term.
- Make-up lesson will be provided for the same term only. Deferral to next term is not allowed.
- Please inform the teacher if student is over 12 years of age and wants to leave class by themselves.
- We are not responsible for the student's safety after they leave our class.
- Classes are limited to 10 students or less.

